

LIFE STORY MANDALA

BESPOKE ART

Generosity is a potent path of personal growth. And we can design not only for how our gifts impact others, but who we want to become as givers. This artist creates a personalized piece for you to represent inner shifts, potentials, connective pathways, and aspects of abundance you want to seed. The symbols represent the next chapter of your story. Some people combine these mandalas with intuitive coaching, retreats, or philanthropic sojourns.

Generosity is a way of being. And it begins in an abundant life. There are few reinforcements for brilliant existence. Little helps us glimpse our hidden potentials, clarify our dreams, or think differently.

This resource is part of a collection spanning an array of philosophies, approaches, and skills. Each explores how to live with bliss and impact.

We describe this resource as a gift to you and all those seeking to make the world better.
