

MAVERICK COLLECTIVE

PHILANTHROPIC COMMUNITY

Many of us want to use our true net worth, which is more than money, to create change. The Maverick Collective provides an example of whole engagement. Mavericks are women who bring at least $1M, and their time and expertise, over three years to create innovative solutions for women and girls around the world. They listen, prototype, learn what works, and build the evidence base—then use this to attract additional resources for growth to a larger scale. The Maverick Collective “redefines what it means to be a philanthropist” and inspires us to engage more powerfully, no matter the issue or place.
