

⇒ WORLD OF MY MAKING ⇐

---

WITH WEALTH, I INHABIT A WORLD MORE
OF MY MAKING.

It can be a tiny world—removed, protected, enclosed. I can choose only rare places. Identify with small circles of humanity. Separate.

Or it can be a vast world. With less pressure on my survival, I can engage with the diversity of life and become a partner in its unfoldment. I can be more connected, more involved.

MORE PART OF EVERYTHING.

Wealth enables my preference of where to go, how to be, and what life to live. I can initiate things that would otherwise not be, change what is, avert or initiate futures. Power increases possibility.

But it does not make clear what to create.

THAT REQUIRES WISDOM.

Luxury may be sterile, just as simplicity can give rise to abundance. There is power that limits, and limits that empower. Essentials that cannot be purchased, only received from others who give.

TO UNDERSTAND WHAT MAKES A
WORLD ALIVE AND VIBRANT BECOMES AS IMPORTANT AS POWER.

Gratitude, love, meaning, and contribution—these arise in relationship. Even as I am able to influence so much of the world, the place I want is one where no one arrives alone.

A VAST AND CONNECTED WORLD.
